ENFORCEMENT CONFIDENTIAL – DO NOT RELEASE UNDER FOIA

In case anyone's interested, AMRA created their own youtube video of their protest on the SF Clearwater. I've also saved it into my sharefile in case they decide to remove it from youtube.

And to keep everyone in the loop, the inspections for this week were cancelled due to heavy rain and floods last week that resulted in landslides in the SF Payette and MF Boise. Both rivers were running milky chocolate. Chad Hood of the Forest Service also confirmed this morning that new rainstorms this week created more chocolate water. It is highly unlikely we will have any more inspections this season as the state permit closes on most sites at the end of August.

[REDACTED] Last year we were too late in the season, this year we were too early. Third time's a charm. Let's also hope for no fires and no floods!
